Re: Docket 94-102, ex parte communication pursuant to Section 1.1206.

Dear Ms. Dortch :

On Wednesday and Thursday, March 5th and 6th, NENA, APCO and NASNA representatives spoke with Commissioners and with the Chief of the Public Safety and Homeland Security Bureau and his staff about a Petition for Notice of Inquiry posted February 14th to the referenced docket.

The Petition seeks to gather new information and consider possible solutions to a growing and dangerous problem of non-emergency calls to 9-1-1, often repeatedly dialed hundreds of times, whose only purpose appears to be harassment or mischief.

The NENA, APCO and NASNA representatives included NENA President Jason Barbour and First Vice President Ron Bonneau, APCO President Willis Carter, NASNA President Richard Taylor, Lynn Questell of the Tennessee Emergency Communications Board, APCO Director of Legal and Government Affairs Bob Gurss, and the undersigned as counsel to NENA.

Please direct any questions to the undersigned.

Sincerely,

James R. Hobson
